Dear Investor,

The Wentworth Williamson Stable Income Fund was established with the intention to provide wholesale clients access to investments that seek to generate regular, stable income over the long term. Wentworth Williamson applies its value-driven investment philosophy to identify suitable credit opportunities for the Fund.

Accordingly, we actively search for what we believe are investments ranking ahead of equity and with contractual repayment obligations that have the potential of generating regular, stable income over the long term for investors. Through the relationship networks of WW and its shareholders, we are able to access attractive, unlisted investments that are usually only available to institutional clients. All new Fund investments need to be acceptable in accordance with the Fund risk appetite and are subject to unanimous investment committee approval.

As a seed asset for the Fund, we secured an investment in a warehouse facility for Credabl, which provides funding directly to surgeons, doctors, dentists and other medical professionals. We believe the Fund's returns on this investment are misaligned with the excellent credit quality of the client base. We know this business and the people well.

Although investment income and the return of investor capital are not guaranteed, our focus is on capital preservation and providing you with stable income. The fund is invested into unlisted debt securities which may be illiquid and contain the risk of default by the issuer.

The Information Memorandum overleaf contains important information about the Fund including details of the risks involved in an investment in the Fund. This Offer is only made to Wholesale Investors and does not take into account your individual investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs. For these reasons, we urge you to read the Information Memorandum carefully and to consult your accountant, investment, financial or other professional advisers before you decide to participate in the Offer.

We look forward to welcoming you as an investor in the Fund.

Yours faithfully,

Geoffrey H Levy, AO

3. OVERVIEW

3.1 The Fund

Wentworth Williamson Management Pty Limited (WW or Wentworth Williamson) is an Australia based fund manager which is the Trustee and Investment Manager of the Wentworth Williamson Stable Income Fund (WWSIF or the Fund). WW operates as an authorised corporate representative (AFS Representative No. 445865) of MZL Nominees Pty Ltd (MZL). MZL holds an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL 526845) which authorises it to operate the Fund as an unregistered managed investment scheme.

The investment objective of the Fund is to earn stable long-term income that exceeds the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) cash rate plus 3.5% p.a. net of fees. We have structured a broad investment mandate so that we can be opportunistic through the economic cycle and offer Unitholders a diversified portfolio of income generating securities. Additionally, it is anticipated that, initially all and over time, a meaningful proportion of the Fund may comprise securities which are uniquely available and proprietary to WW and generally not available to the investing public. The investment objective is a target return only and may not be achieved. Investment income and the return of investor capital are not guaranteed. The fund is invested into unlisted debt securities which may be illiquid and contain the risk of default by the issuer.

Under the Fund's Constitution, WW has the power to borrow as Trustee on behalf of the Fund and WW may do so, including to receive bridging finance for new investments by the Fund.

3.2 The Trustee and Manager

WW is a research driven organisation with a value-based long-term strategy. WW carries out its own internal research and financial modelling thereby increasing its understanding of the underlying investments in the Fund. With this approach, Investors are encouraged to give their investment time horizon careful consideration before making an investment.

WW was founded by James Williamson and Geoff Levy.

3.3 Conflicts of Interest

WW, as the Investment Manager will, where relevant, draw upon the deep relationships of its shareholders and key executives. All commercial dealings are conducted on an arm's length basis and on commercial terms.

All investments in the Fund will require approval by the WW Investment Committee which requires any member to be recused if a conflict of interest is present.

WW also believes that its interests should be closely aligned with the Fund's Unitholders and therefore the WW executives and Geoff Levy and family and close associates of WW executives and Geoff Levy are unitholders of the Fund.

These service providers may be changed at any time without notice to Investors.

6. KEY RISKS

Any investment, including an investment in the Fund, carries certain risks. There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective and investors should fully understand and be capable of assuming the risks of investing in the Fund. Furthermore, you should not invest in the Fund if you are seeking a short-term investment. WW and its advisers have reviewed and considered these risks and ways to reduce the likelihood of these risks eventuating and to reduce the impact of these risks if they eventuate. While WW intends to apply sound principles designed to minimise the risk inherent in operating the Fund, investors should carefully consider the risk factors which may affect WW, the Fund, and its activities.

These matters must be borne in mind by any person interested in investing in the Fund. Actual performance of the Fund will be subject to a variety of influences and risk factors. This section outlines some of the significant risks that could affect the performance of the Fund, however, the following is not, and does not purport to be, a comprehensive statement of all relevant risks of the Fund. Many of these risks are outside of the control of WW; however appropriate mitigation measures will be applied where possible. Please ensure that you read this section carefully and seek your own independent financial or other professional advice in relation to the risks and make your own assessment whether to invest in the Fund.

6.1 Credit Risk and Default Risk

Credit risk is the risk that one or more of the assets in the Fund may decline in price or fail to pay interest or principal when due because an underlying borrower experiences a deterioration in its financial status.

Default risk is the risk that a borrower defaults on their obligations, for instance by failing to make a payment when due or to return the principal. If a borrower defaults on its obligations, this could reduce the returns to unitholders and may result in a loss of some or all of the capital value of the units in the Fund. The taking of security or the provision of third-party guarantees may not fully mitigate the risk of credit loss.

6.2 Investment Strategy Risk

There is no guarantee that the Investment Objective of the Fund will be managed successfully or will meet its objectives. Failure to do so could negatively impact the performance of the Fund. The Investment Manager may not manage the affairs of the Fund in a manner that consistently meets the Fund's Investment Objective over time. The Fund is not suited to investors who seek a short-term investment, who require ready access to their investment, or who are unable to sustain a loss of investment capital.

6.3 Interest Rate Risk

Over the long term the absolute returns on loans are likely to rise and fall largely in correlation with the official Cash Rate. However, some of the securities in the Fund will be on fixed rates over a set term, typically between one and three years. As such, if interest rates rise from time to time, this would reduce the interest income of the loan relative to other loan facilities, and that, in turn, would reduce the potential returns of the Fund relative to other investments, including other investments of a similar nature.

6.4 Investment and Market Risk

An investment in the Fund is subject to investment and market risk, including the possible loss of the entire amount invested. Industry specific shocks relevant to underlying loan assets and general market disruption can adversely impact the value of the Fund's assets.

The market and market conditions in which the investment sits, including changes in legal, tax and economic conditions, political events, investor sentiment and market variables, such as interest rates and exchange rates, can all directly or indirectly create an environment that may influence (negatively or positively) the value of the Fund's investments. You should bear the above risks in mind when considering whether to participate in the Offer. You are strongly advised to consider any investment in the Fund as a long-term proposition and to be aware that, as with any investment, fluctuations in the value of your investment may occur over that period and beyond.

6.5 Investment Timeframe

Selecting the investments that best match your investment needs and timeframe is crucial in managing investment risk. The minimum suggested investment period is based on WW's own research and should not be considered as personal advice. You should regularly review your investment decision with your financial adviser. Your investment needs and market conditions may change over time and differ from the investment strategies of WW and other Unitholders.

6.6 Withdrawal Risk

Withdrawal risk is the risk that if the Fund invests in assets that cannot be readily bought and sold, or market events reduce the liquidity of a security or asset class, the generally applicable timeframe for meeting withdrawal requests may not be met. This is because it may take longer to sell these types of investments at an acceptable price. In addition, if an Investor or a group of Investors seek to make large withdrawals, then selling assets to meet those withdrawals may have a detrimental impact on the price received by the Fund for those assets. In certain circumstances it may be necessary to suspend withdrawals to allow sufficient time for liquidation of assets to meet withdrawals.

6.7 Counterparty Risk

Counterparty risk is the risk that the counterparty to a transaction or contract (such as a broker or custodian) may default on their obligations and that the Fund may, as a result, experience an adverse investment outcome or liability. WW has conducted due diligence on outsourced service providers and based on the information provided by the respective service providers, publicly available and reference checking, WW is satisfied with their credentials and ability to deliver the required service levels.

6.8 Concentration Risk

The Fund may choose to invest a relatively high percentage of its assets into a relatively small number of securities, or into securities with a relatively high level of exposure to the same end markets. This may cause the value of the Fund's investments to be more affected by any single adverse economic, political or regulatory event than the investments of a more diversified investment portfolio.

6.9 Foreign Exchange Risk

Units in the Fund will be issued and redeemed in Australian Dollars. The Fund's assets may be invested in securities denominated in a foreign currency. The value of such investments may be affected favourably or unfavourably by fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

6.10 Legal and Regulatory Risk

Changes in legislation and other rules in domestic and foreign markets, including those dealing with tax, accounting and investments, may adversely impact your investment.

6.11 Key Personnel Risk

The Fund depends on the expertise of WW and its employees. The Fund's performance could be negatively affected if WW does not retain key employees.

6.12 Documentation Risk

A deficiency in documentation provided by the underlying borrowers could, in certain circumstances, adversely affect the performance of this Fund.

6.13 Borrowing Risk

The Trustee may source finance from third parties on behalf of this Fund to facilitate new investments by the Fund. The use of debt funding has a number of risks. For example, if a loan is secured against the assets of the Fund, a default under the relevant loan agreement could, in certain circumstances, lead to the financier exercising its security and requiring the secured assets be sold for a price lower than that which might otherwise have been achieved by the Trustee for those assets. Similarly, if a financier is entitled to be repaid in priority to distributions by the Fund, if the relevant investment opportunity is not successful, it could result in the Fund receiving reduced or no returns from the relevant debt funding opportunity. These circumstances could adversely affect the performance of the Fund.

6.14 General investment risks

The operating results of the Fund will depend on, among other things, the ability of WW to manage the assets of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may be affected by economic conditions in Australia. Also of relevance to the performance of the Fund will be interest rates in Australia, overseas trading relationships, the general health of the world economy, the liquidity of financial markets, changes in government policy and other factors which are beyond the control of WW.

These matters must be borne in mind by any person interested in investing in the Fund. Actual results will be subject to a variety of influences and risk factors.

7. FEES & EXPENSES

At the date of this Information Memorandum, WW charges a Management Fee of 1.0% per annum of the net asset value of the Fund. Under the Fund's constitution, WW is entitled to be paid a higher Management Fee and would provide notice to Investors in the event that WW decides to increase the management fee at a rate not exceeding 3% of the net asset value of the Fund. The management fee is calculated and accrued monthly and is paid monthly in arrears.

Under the Fund's constitution, WW is entitled to charge a performance fee in respect of the Fund's performance. However as at the date of this Information Memorandum, WW has elected not to charge such a fee.

WW is entitled to be reimbursed for all extraordinary expenses properly incurred by WW in relation to managing the Fund, such as convening Unitholder meetings or defending a third-party claim made against the Fund, or any other expenses that are properly incurred in respect of the Fund.

All fees quoted in this Information Memorandum are exclusive of the effect of GST and input tax credits. The Fund may be charged additional amounts for GST and be entitled to claim Reduced Input Tax Credits in respect of certain fees. Under the Fund's constitution, if WW is or becomes liable to pay GST in respect of the Fund, WW shall be entitled to be repaid out of the Fund on account of GST.

Subject to the Fund's Constitution, WW may increase or decrease, in its absolute discretion, the fees for which WW is entitled to be reimbursed, or charge for managing the Fund, that are specified in this section and in the Fund's constitution by providing written notice to Investors of any increase or decrease to the fees charged by the Fund.

WW may from time to time negotiate alternative fee arrangements for certain investors

8. TAXATION

Investing in the Fund has tax implications, depending upon your particular situation. Given the complex and dynamic nature of the Australian taxation system, and the fact that different tax circumstances apply to individual Investors, WW strongly recommends that investors obtain professional tax advice on the tax implications of investing in the Fund. The taxation information below provides general information only that outlines the Australian tax implications applicable to the Fund. The taxation information also principally only addresses the Australian tax implications for Australian resident Investors who hold their units on capital account for tax purposes. This summary is based on the Australian tax laws and their interpretation as at the date of this Information Memorandum.

8.1 Taxation of the Fund

Investing in an unregistered managed investment scheme (such as the Fund) is likely to have tax consequences. You are strongly advised to seek your own professional tax advice before investing in the Fund. The Fund is an Australian resident for tax purposes. Australian resident investors in the Fund will generally be required to include in their assessable income their share of the net income of the Fund. For any investors who are non-residents, Australian withholding tax maybe deducted from distributions. Investors will receive a tax statement at the end of each income year specifying the nature of any amounts distributed or attributed to them.

8.2 Disposal of Units

An Australian resident investor disposing their units in the Fund (by way of redemption or otherwise) may be subject to tax on any gain arising. A discount may be available on the capital gain on units held for 12 months or more by individuals, trusts or complying superannuation funds.

8.3 Goods and Services Tax (GST)

GST should not be payable on your investment in the Fund. However, GST will apply to the Management Fee and certain fees and costs charged to the Fund. The Fund will generally be able to claim RITC at the prescribed rates of the GST payable on those services. GST will not be applied to the sell spread.

8.4 Tax File Number ("TFN") and Australian Business Number ("ABN") (for Australian resident investors only)

Investors are not obliged to provide their TFN, ABN or details of any relevant exemption. However, failure by an Investor to quote a TFN, ABN or provide details of a relevant exemption may cause WW to withhold tax at the top marginal rate plus the Medicare Levy, on gross payments including distributions to the Investor.

9. CONSTITUTION OF THE FUND

The main rules governing the operation of the Fund are set out in the Constitution of the Fund. The applicable requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), exemptions and declarations by ASIC (if any) and the general law of trusts are also relevant to the rights and obligations of Unitholders and WW. In this section the term “Unitholder” is used to refer to a Unitholder as the holder of units in the Fund.

Copies of the Fund’s Constitution are available from WW upon request. The following is a summary only and does not refer to every provision of the Constitution and should be read in conjunction with the rest of this Information Memorandum and with the entire Constitution.

The main provisions of the Constitution dealing with the rights and obligations of Unitholders include:

Units: The beneficial interest in a Fund is divided into units. Each Unit confers a beneficial interest in the Fund as a whole but not in any specific part or assets of the Fund.

Distributable Income: Subject to the terms of issue of particular classes of units, unitholders are entitled to a share in any distributions of the Fund’s distributable income attributable to the class proportionate to their holding of units in the class of units. Unitholders on the register at the end of a distribution period are entitled to their share of the distributable income (determined as set out in the Constitution) for that period.

WW intends to pay distributions within one month of the end of the relevant period, however, provides no guarantee regarding the distribution of income of the Fund or the return of investor capital.

Transfer: A Unitholder may only transfer some or all of its units with WW’s prior written consent. WW may, without giving any reason for the refusal, refuse to approve a transfer application and/or refuse to record any transfer in the register in its absolute and unfettered discretion.

If WW determines to approve a transfer it may impose any conditions it considers appropriate to the giving of the approval and/or impose a transfer fee payable by the transferor or transferee to the Fund in connection with the transfer of units and the transferor must pay any expenses (including stamp duty) incurred in connection with the transfer of its units.

Redemption: A Unitholder may request WW to redeem some or all of their units, and WW may elect to agree to the redemption request in its absolute discretion. WW is not obliged to pay any part of the redemption price out of its own funds. WW may set a minimum or maximum amount (or both) for a redemption request to be made by investors in the Fund. WW may waive any such conditions in its absolute discretion.

Termination: If the Fund is terminated, WW must notify investors that the trust has been or will be terminated, and WW must realise all assets of the Fund and the Unitholders are entitled to receive a share of the net asset value of the Fund, after meeting all liabilities and expenses, in proportion to their unitholding.

Unitholders’ Liability: The liability of a Unitholder is limited to the amount (if any) which remains unpaid in relation to their units (subject to any separate agreement between them and WW).

Powers of the Trustee: WW, as Trustee of the Fund, has all the powers in respect of the Fund that it is possible under law to confer on the Trustee as though it were the absolute and beneficial owner of the assets of the Fund and acting in its personal capacity.

WW has all the powers of a natural person to acquire and dispose of real or personal property, borrow or raise money and to lend or advance money and to incur all types of obligations and liabilities.

Rights of the Trustee: The Trustee may pay or recover all fees expenses properly incurred in respect of the Fund out of the Fund's assets.

Limitation of Liability: WW is not liable to Unitholders for any loss suffered relating to the Fund except to the extent to which the loss is caused by the failure of WW to properly perform its duties.

Indemnity: WW, as Trustee, and its officers and agents, are entitled to be fully indemnified out of the Fund's assets against all expenses, losses and liabilities incurred to the extent incurred in the proper performance of WW's duties in relation to the Fund.

Voluntary or Compulsory Retirement: WW may retire as trustee of the Fund at such time as it thinks fit and may appoint another company to be the new trustee of the Fund. In accordance with the Constitution, WW must retire as trustee of the Fund upon the occurrence of certain events.

Borrowing: WW, as Trustee of the Fund, has the power to borrow or raise money, securities and interest in managed investment schemes on behalf of the Fund

10. APPLICATION, REDEMPTIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

10.1 Applications

The minimum amount you must commit to invest in the Fund (Committed Capital) is $50,000. Lower amounts may be accepted at the discretion of WW.

If your committed capital is $500,000 or more, you will automatically be deemed a 'Wholesale Client' and no additional documentation is required for the purposes of satisfying the 'Wholesale Client' requirements. If you are investing less than $500,000, you will need to satisfy WW that you are a Wholesale Client.

The Trustee has absolute discretion to accept or reject any Application. Rejected, invalid or incomplete Applications will be returned to Applicants as soon as possible. Interest is not payable on rejected Application Monies. A confirmation advice of the unit holding will be issued as soon as practicable following the determination of the applicable NAV of the Fund.

Units will generally be issued monthly on the first business day of each month, and/or such other time or times as WW may determine (Unit Issue Day). The issue unit price will be the applicable UNAV as at the immediately preceding Valuation Day.

Initial applications can be made by completing the accompanying Application Form and forwarding it to the Registrar in accordance with the Communications Policy contained herein. Your investment amounts for a particular Unit Issue Day must be electronically transferred into the relevant bank account details set out in the Application Form so that it is received by the Registrar no later than 5pm (Sydney time) at least three (3) business days prior to the relevant Unit Issue Day (or such earlier or later time as WW may determine). The Application Form and any requisite supporting documentation must also be received by the Registrar no later than 5pm (Sydney time) at least one (1) business day prior to your initial Unit Issue Day (or such earlier or later time as WW may determine).

Please note: Funds must be transferred from a bank account in the name of the subscriber(s) as appears in the registration details on the Application Form.

10.2 Redemptions

As the Fund is a long-term focused Income Fund, early redemptions are discouraged as they disrupt the strategy of the Fund and are unfavourable to other Unitholders in general. Unless instructed otherwise, on you requesting any redemption we will assume you wish to first redeem the units you have held longest.

The Trustee will use its best endeavours to ensure that a written redemption notice received in a calendar month will be processed at the end of that calendar month (Redemption Day). In other words, under normal circumstances, the redemption request will typically be processed and, following processing, unit holders will typically receive redemption funds, between 1 and 30 days from the request depending on when the redemption request is received within the month. The Trustee makes no guarantee as to the return of investor capital.

If the Trustee is unable to satisfy all redemption requests in respect of a calendar month as a result of not being able to sufficiently realise underlying assets at prices determined by the Trustee to be reasonable, the Trustee may reduce the number of Units redeemed on a pro-rata basis. The unredeemed portion of the relevant redemption requests are carried forward to the next calendar month.

WW may at its discretion allow redemptions at other times and with longer or shorter notice periods. If the request is received after the deadline for receipt of requests for any particular Redemption Day, it will be treated as a request for redemption on the next relevant Redemption Day.

Investors wishing to redeem Units in the Fund should request a redemption form by contacting invest@wentworthwilliamson.com.au.

The redemption price will be the applicable UNAV as at the close of business on the relevant Valuation Day.

Investments can be redeemed by sending a Redemption Request in accordance with the Communications Policy contained herein. The Redemption Request must be signed by the Investor or authorised signatories and must specify the Investor number, amount (in Dollars or units) and account name, BSB number and account number of the bank account to which payment is to be made. Redemption payments for a Redemption Request will generally be made by the payment of cash but WW, in its absolute discretion, may make redemption payments in specie or partly in cash and partly in specie. Investors should note that redemption proceeds will only be paid into the original account in the name of the Investor from which the subscription proceeds were derived or, upon approval of WW, to another account in the name of the Investor. Note that normal bank charges apply.

Redemption proceeds will be paid as soon as practical after the redemption of the Units in the Fund. Payment of proceeds will generally be remitted within 10 working days after the end of the month in which the redemption request was received.

10.3 Suspensions

Under the Constitution, WW has the power to suspend the redemption and/or issue of units or the payment for the redemption of Units or the determination of the new net asset value for a reasonable period (Suspension Period) in certain situations including if WW considers that:

- it is desirable to protect the Fund or in the interests of Investors as a whole;
- it is not reasonably practicable for WW to acquire or dispose of assets or determine fairly the redemption price; and/or
- the realisation of assets cannot be affected at appropriate prices or on adequate terms or otherwise due to one or more circumstances outside the control of WW.

Redemption requests received during the Suspension Period will be deemed to have been lodged immediately after the end of a Suspension Period. The issue and redemption price for Units the subject of an Application or a Redemption Request received or deemed received during the Suspension Period shall be the value of the issue or redemption price next determined after the end of the Suspension Period.

10.4 Unit Pricing and Valuing Assets

The offer of units in the Fund provided for in this Information Memorandum relates to a particular class of Units in the Fund.

When you invest, you are allocated a number of Units in the class. Each of these Units in the class equals an equal undivided part of the market value of the portfolio value attributable to the class. As a result, each unit has a dollar value or 'unit price'. The Unit price of the class is calculated by dividing the total asset value of the class, less its liabilities (namely the net asset value), by the total number of Units in the class held by Investors on that day. All Unit prices are calculated to 1/100th of a cent (with application unit prices rounded up and redemption unit prices rounded down). The number of Units issued are calculated and allocated to the nearest 4th decimal place.

Unit pricing occurs on a monthly basis as at the Valuation Day, and/or such other time or times as the Trustee may determine. The net asset value of the Fund or the class includes the value of income accumulated since the previous distribution date.

WW has delegated to the Administrator the determination of the net asset value of the Fund and the net asset value per unit of the class, subject to the overall supervision and direction of WW. In determining the net asset value of the Fund and the net asset value per unit of the class, the Administrator will follow the valuation policies and procedures adopted by the Fund. There is currently a sell spread directly incurred on Applications for, or redemptions of, Units in the Fund. WW does not charge a buy spread on Applications for Units in the Fund. Transaction costs are the costs related to the buying and selling of assets such as brokerage and settlement costs.

10.5 Income Distributions

The Trustee intends on making income distributions from the Fund on a monthly basis, or on a more or less frequent basis solely at WW's discretion. An income distribution comprises the investor's share of any "net income" earned by the Fund. Where a distribution is made, the entitlement to income in respect of the class for a distribution period is the entitlement of the class for the period divided by the number of Units of the class on issue as at the relevant distribution date. Distributions will generally be paid within 1 month after the distribution date. Investors may have their monthly distribution reinvested or directly credited to a nominated Australian bank account.

When Units are redeemed, WW may choose to distribute for tax purposes an amount of undistributed income to the redeeming Unitholder, including gains resulting from the realisation of any assets, to fund the redemption as part of the redemption process.

Income payments of the Fund depend on the success of the underlying investments of the Fund and are at the Trustee's discretion. The return of capital or distributions are not guaranteed.

10.6 Distribution Reinvestment Programme (DRP)

The Fund offers a Distribution Reinvestment Programme (DRP). Reinvested Distributions will be reinvested into additional Units in the Fund using the UNAV as at the Valuation Day immediately following the distribution (with no buy spread applied). You may withdraw from the DRP at any time by notice in writing to WW. Units in the Fund allotted as a result of a DRP will be allotted in accordance with the Information Memorandum and the Constitution of the Fund.

WW has the power to suspend or cancel the DRP, from time to time, but will provide reasonable notice of any such suspension or cancellation to all Unitholders.

11. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

11.1 Privacy Statement

We collect, hold and use personal information from you in the application and any other relevant forms to be able to process your application, administer your investment in the Fund, provide facilities and services that you request or that are connected with your interest in the Units, carry out appropriate administration, and comply with any relevant laws, including but not limited to the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act). If you do not provide us with your relevant personal information, we will not be able to do so.

Privacy laws apply to our handling of personal information and we will collect, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with our privacy policy, which includes details about the following matters:

- the kinds of personal information we collect and hold;
- how we collect and hold personal information;
- the purposes for which we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information;
- how you may access personal information that we hold about you and seek correction of such information (not that exceptions apply in some circumstances);
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles (APP), or a registered APP code (if any) that binds us, and how we will deal with such a complaint; and
- whether we are likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients and, if so, the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located if it is practicable for us to specify those countries.

Our privacy policy is publicly available at our website at www.wentworthwilliamson.com.au, or you can obtain a copy free of charge by contacting us. Under the Privacy Act, you may request access to your personal information held by WW by contacting James Williamson at WW's registered office.

By completing the Application Form on behalf of another person, you undertake to provide a copy of this privacy statement to the principal, company officer or partner that you represent.

11.2 Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Laws

The Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) ("AML Act") and other applicable anti-money laundering and counter terrorism laws, regulations, rules and policies which apply to WW (AML Requirements), regulate financial services and transactions in a way that is designed to detect and prevent money laundering and terrorism financing. The AML Act is enforced by the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC). In order to comply with the AML Requirements, WW is required to, amongst other things:

- verify your identity and source of your application monies before providing services to you, and to re-identify you if they consider it necessary to do so; and

- where you supply documentation relating to the verification of your identity, keep a record of this documentation for 7 years.

WW, and the Registrar and/or the Administrator as its agent, (collectively, the Entities) reserve the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an Investor and the source of the payment. In the event of delay or failure by the Investor to produce this information, the Entities may refuse to accept an application and the application monies relating to such application or may suspend the payment of withdrawal proceeds if necessary to comply with AML Requirements applicable to them. Neither the Entities nor their delegates shall be liable to the Investor for any loss suffered by the Investor as a result of the rejection or delay of any subscription or payment of withdrawal proceeds.

The Entities have implemented a number of measures and controls to ensure they comply with their obligations under the AML Requirements, including carefully identifying and monitoring investors. As a result of the implementation of these measures and controls:

- transactions may be delayed, blocked, frozen or refused where an Entity has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction breaches the law or sanctions of Australia or any other country, including the AML Requirements;
- where transactions are delayed, blocked, frozen or refused the Entities are not liable for any loss you suffer (including consequential loss) caused by reason of any action taken or not taken by them as contemplated above, or as a result of their compliance with the AML Requirements as they apply to the Fund; and
- the Entities may from time to time require additional information from you to assist it with this process.

The Entities have certain reporting obligations under the AML Requirements and are prevented from informing you that any such reporting has taken place. Where required by law, an entity may disclose the information gathered to regulatory or law enforcement agencies, including AUSTRAC. The Entities are not liable for any loss you may suffer as a result of our compliance with the AML Requirements.

11.3 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA), the Common Reporting Standard (CRS) and Other Similar Regimes

The United States of America has introduced rules (known as FATCA) which are intended to prevent US persons from avoiding tax. The Common Reporting Standard (CRS) is a standardised set of information sharing rules which have been developed by the OECD with the aim of preventing tax evasion in other participating jurisdictions. Australia has enacted legislation to implement FATCA and the CRS in Australia.

Broadly, the FATCA and CRS rules may require the Fund to report certain information to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), which may then pass the information on to the relevant foreign tax authorities. If you do not provide this information, we will not be able to process your application. In order to comply with these obligations, WW (or the Registrar and/or the Administrator as its agent) will:

- collect certain information about you and undertake certain due diligence procedures to verify your FATCA and CRS status; and
- provide information to the ATO in relation to your financial information required by the ATO (if any) in respect of any investment in the Fund.

Any unit holder who does not provide information requested by WW (or the Registrar and/or the Administrator as its agent) for FATCA or CRS purposes, or for the purposes of any similar regime, is subject to a compulsory redemption of their units. In addition, if you do not provide us with the required information for FATCA or CRS compliance, WW may be required to report your account details to the appropriate local tax authority such as the ATO.

11.4 Appointment of Authorised Representative to Operate Account

You may elect to appoint an authorised representative to operate your account. The relevant sections on the Application Form need to be completed, including the name and signature of the authorised representative, the signature of the unit holder and the date. Only unitholders can appoint authorised representatives.

By completing and lodging the relevant sections on authorised representatives on the Application Form you release, discharge and agree to indemnify the Trustee from and against any and all losses, liabilities, actions, proceedings, account claims and demands suffered by you or by the Trustee or brought against the Trustee in respect of any act or omission of your authorised representative whether authorised by you or not.

You also agree that any instructions of your authorised representative to the Trustee, which are followed by the Trustee, shall be a complete satisfaction of the obligations of the Trustee, notwithstanding any fact or circumstance, including that the instructions were made without your knowledge or authority. You agree that if an authorised representative's instructions are followed by the Trustee, you and any person claiming through or under you shall have no claim against the Trustee in relation to the instructions.

11.5 Powers of an Authorised Representative

An authorised representative can, among other things:

- collect certain information about you and undertake certain due diligence procedures to verify your FATCA and CRS status; and
- provide information to the ATO in relation to your financial information required by the ATO (if any) in respect of any investment in the Fund.

Withdrawal payments will not be made to third parties. If a company is appointed as an authorised representative, the powers will extend to any director and authorised officer of the company. If a partnership is appointed as an authorised representative, the powers will extend to all partners.
